About the Awards

The Registered Trainer of the Year Award recognises, rewards and promotes outstanding individuals who have made a positive impact within the healthcare training sector. 2023 marked Trainer Courses Ltd.'s third consecutive year delivering our awards platform to recognise the dedication and contribution of our 7,000 plus Registered Trainers.

Trainer Courses Ltd has developed into more than just a preferred train the trainer provider, establishing itself as one of the UK's largest communities of trainers working collectively within the healthcare training sector.

We're excited to bring the Awards back in 2024, which you can keep up to date by visiting our awards website: trainercourses.com/awards

“ Congratulations Linda Knock on winning the Registered Trainer of the Year Award for 2023. The entries this year were very impressive, I would like to express my gratitude to all those Registered Trainers who entered, thanks to the judges for their enthusiasm and fairness throughout the judging process and to our sponsors for their contribution. We look forward to the awards returning in 2024.

Philip Inglis, Head of Centre for Trainer Courses Ltd

Congratulations to the Winner of the Trainer Courses Ltd Registered Trainer of the Year Award 2023

Linda Knock, Harmonize Care Ltd

"My role is not just that of a trainer, but as Deputy Manager & Nominated Person for managing the business. I have been a Registered Nurse since 2007 and I act as a role model & mentor to all my colleagues and offer support through training, sharing experiences & supervision.

I am very proud of winning Trainer of the Year. It's gratifying to know I'm providing a quality service, and is largely thanks to the excellent feedback I have received from my trainees!".

Award Accreditation

Since the launch of the inaugural Awards in 2021, the Registered Trainer of the Year Awards continued to commit for complete transparency and fairness by retaining its Awards Trust Mark accreditation for a third consecutive year.

The Awards Trust Mark scheme is a not-for-profit accreditation programme run by The Independent Awards Standards Council with the goal of, as the name suggests, enhancing trust between those entering awards schemes, and the organisations running them.

Why were the Awards created?

The Registered Trainer of the Year Award recognises, rewards and promotes outstanding individuals who have made a positive impact within the healthcare training sector... which was summarised perfectly by one of our Registered Trainers.

“

"Thank you so much for this! It's all very exciting and I'm so pleased that you have created some form of recognition for a role that at times is greatly under-appreciated role! I remember once being told I was 'Just a trainer' I found it soul destroying. Trainers don't just teach they nurture, support, counsel, creating bonds, research, uphold laws and I know especially with my team that we connect the company together through our collaborative teaching.

Well done and good luck to all the entrants. How exciting!"

Emma Rutterford-Dawkins, Hilton Nursing Partners

Judges Top Tips

"I'm keen to see entrant's passion and personality in entry submissions backed up by solid supporting evidence, such as learner feedback and personal development certifications. My top tip for success is to elaborate on your passion as a trainer and the impact you have made to others".

Philip Inglis, Head of Centre for Trainer Courses Ltd

"I look for really good comprehensive supporting evidence such as feedback from their training sessions which supports good leadership, content of training session, equality in sessions so that all participants feel included and supported".

Sandra Parnell-Hopkinson, former Lead CQC Inspector & Regulatory Compliance Consultant

"My top tip is based on professional development. Show the Judges what you have done to develop and maintain your professional development through CPD. To enhance this further tell us why you have completed certain aspects of CPD and the benefit of these. This shows that you are constantly developing as a Trainer".

Simon Linard, External Quality Assurer for Nationally Recognised Awarding Bodies
